Footprints in the Mud

In the early years of the ministry, Lori saw a vision. The vision showed thousands of teens going into a building where she was to speak. Since then we have tried to fill the needs of as many people as we were able to young and old. Our focus was and is the youth, always with this vision in the back of our minds. The vision of thousands of the youth at the Dream Center is what I wish to speak to. There are a million things that we could and should do. But, I believe that this early vision is meant to keep us going in His direction that He wants us to go in. God Himself had to wait on a generation of rebellious and stiff necked people to die out before He took the next generation into the promised land. The next generation of Lakota youth will be the one that will change a nation! It is not about how many there are at the D.C., but how many there are to change a nation and turn them to Himself. I'm casting vision, I'm just bringing to remembrance what the vision was in the beginning until now. That is, a place for the Lakota youth to serve God, worship God, and turn the whole nation to Him! We love you, Gary

Look and see what the Lord is doing putting on the heart of our friends!

We are never one's to question when the Lord says to do something.....ha! ha! Yes we do! But when He tells one of our partners to do something at the Dream Center and we know that it is just what these Lakota teens would love we say..Yes!

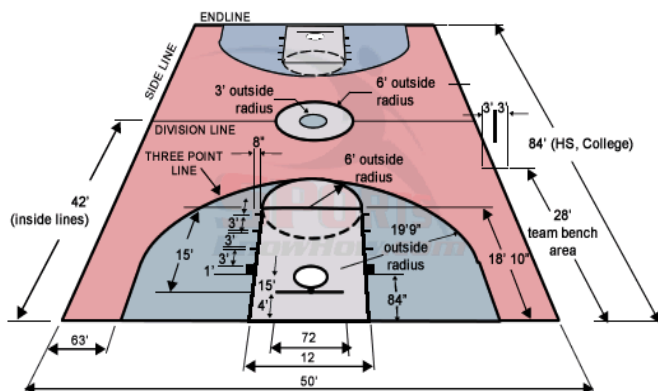

During our youth trip to NY in 2016, one of the hosting families became very interested in helping a the Dream Center. One of our male students stayed at their home and was around the same age as their son. They had a basketball court in their yard. They noticed how basketball was so important to the Lakota teens and how the Lord used it to help the NY teens find common ground with our Lakota students. A few months ago Deb and Bob, the hosting parents, reached out to us. They said their son wanted to build an indoor basketball arena at the Dream Center. With all we have on our plates with fundraising for the Circle of Love and the new indoor cafeteria we knew we could not take on anymore. Bob and Deb said they would spear head the fundraising along with their son! Then more partners came on board in San Diego, and San Francisco! God is up to something and we blessed, blessed to have Him do it! Please keep Bob and Deb and their son in prayer as they gear up to begin the capital campaign to bring this life giving arena to the Dream Center. It will also be used as a multi-purpose building where we will hold worship, Christian concerts for the youth and family events. It will hold over 2,000 people! God can do so much more, abundantly more than we can do! More than we have ever dreamed. Just imagining the Circle of Love, and indoor place to feed the children, Basketball Arena, a safe, fun and loving place all made by Jesus. Thank you all for your prayers and love, keep the prayers coming!~ Lori

We welcome Immanuel Baptist Church, OK on May 25. They will be bringing their student church choir to be with us for a week. We will be going into the communities bringing song, and the Gospel Message. Keep this week in your prayers.

June and July will bring over 20 teams to work at the Dream Center and serve in the communities. We hope the Lakota families and children will see God through us this spring/summer season and reach out to Jesus. Kids events, feeding the children, construction projects, Breakout in the streets for the Lakota teens are all about to begin.
